for Service, if Called, at $30 a Month.

NOTED NAMES LISTED.

Stage Celebrities, Authors and Financiers Well Represented
Under New Call.

If some of to-day's registrants should be accepted for active service, their "earned incomes" will change from $30 a minute to $30 a month. But even at that, Uncle Sam has many millionaires working for him at a dollar a year.

This draft registration, the fourth and greatest since the United States entered the war, will take in successful men in every occupation. Among the representatives of wealthy or aristocratic New York families who must register are:

John D. Rockefeller Jr., who is forty-four and one of the richest men who will go on the rolls; his cousin, Percy A. Rockefeller, forty; Clarence H. Mackay, forty-four; Reginald C. Vanderbilt, William K. Vanderbilt Jr., Robert Walton Gould, Pierre Lorillard 3d, Frank Jay Gould. One of the J. P. Morgan partners to be in line is Dwight Whitney Morrow, who is forty-five. Thomas Morrison Carnegie, nephew of Andrew Carnegie, and himself a financier, is forty-four.

Among the Wall Street men are August P. and William De Lahey Kountze, E. G. Merrill, James Hazen Hyde, George F. Baker Jr., Nicholas F. Brady, Howard Hayne, banker, and Lawrence Chamberlain, banker.

The prominent stage people who will enroll include John Barrymore, Douglas Fairbanks, Henry B. Warner, Fred Stone, Guy Bates Post, Brandon Tynan, Lou Tellegen, Arnold Daly, Dustin Farnum, Jack Norworth, Julian Eltinge, Carter de Haven, Alexander Carr, Harry Fox, Donald Brian, King Baggett, Francis X. Bushman, Maurice Costello and Charles Chaplin.

Among the managers will be George M. Cohan, Lee Shubert, William L. Courtenay and Edgar Selway. Among the playwrights will be Richard Walton Tully, Rex Beach, Channing Pollock, Earl Derr Biggers and Walter Prichard Eaton. The artists and illustrators who may be called into service are Harrison Fisher, James Montgomery Flagg, Peirah Stanlaw, Henry Hutt, George W. Bellows and Howard Chandler Christy. Some of the opera singers are John McCormack, Riccardo Martin, Thomas Chalmers, Leo Slezak, Arthur Bodanzky and Enrico Caruso.

Among the authors liable to call are Will Irvin, Upton Sinclair, Louis Joseph Vance, Montague Glass, Owen Johnson, Irvin S. Cobb, Ernest Poole, Clayton Hamilton and Guido Bruno, the Bohemian poet of Greenwich Village.

Some of the most prominent physicians within the registration are Dr. Alexis Carrel, Dr. Charles Frederick Bolduan and Dr. Abraham Arden Brill.

RUIN WROUGHT BY GERMAN GUNS AT CHAUNY

THIS French official photograph is proof of the terrible effect wrought by the German guns in the work of ravaging France. Chauny was an important and prosperous village that no doubt will be rebuilt, probably with American materials and by the aid of American workmen.

It was deliberately wrecked by the foe.

LATEST OFFICIAL REPORTS

BRITISH

LONDON, Sept. 12.—Following is the text of to-day's War Office statement:

"We crossed the Canal du Nord northwest of Havincourt and established ourselves on the west bank of the canal east and north of Moeuvres.

"During the night we attacked and captured the strongly fortified position known as the railway triangle southwest of La Hassee, taking a number of prisoners and machine guns.

"Yesterday evening we captured Attilly, Vermand and Vendelles. During the night we progressed to the western outskirts of Holnon Wood. The English in successful local operations yesterday afternoon in the Havincourt and Moeuvres sectors overcame considerable opposition."

FRENCH

PARIS, Sept. 12.—The text of to-day's War Office statement reads as follows:

"North of the Ailette a raid by French troops resulted in the taking of prisoners. There was artillery activity in the Rheims and the Proennes regions. Two enemy raids in the Champagne and in the Vosges were repulsed."

ITALIAN

ROME, Sept. 12.—The War Office statement says:

"West of Mori our patrols overcame wire systems, charged a hostile outpost and brought back twelve prisoners, arms and materials.

"Italian soldiers and sailors at the mouth of the Piave passed to the left bank of the river and captured in a coup de main an officer, eleven soldiers and a machine gun. In the Orme valley and on the Piave other parties efficiently harassed the enemy, inflicting losses and capturing material.

"In the Vallarsa region, on the Asiago Plateau and in the Asolone area artillery was in frequent and violent action. Three hostile machines were downed in air combats.

"Combativeness was again evident in Albania southeast of Berat and between Osum and Tomorie. Yesterday there were lively encounters between the enemy and Albanian advanced parties. Hostile detachments in Macedonia, protected by violent artillery fire, attempted to raid our positions eastward of height 1,050. They were arrested with heavy losses."

GERMAN

BERLIN, via London, Sept. 12.—Following is to-day's War Office report:

"Northward of Bismarck partial enemy attacks were repulsed. We also repulsed enemy advances near Armentieres and on the La Bassée Canal.

"Between the Ailette and the Aisne artillery fire increased in the evening. On the heights eastward of Fismes, French partial attacks were repulsed. We carried out successful reconnoitring operations in Lorraine and the Vosges."

AUSTRIAN

VIENNA (via London), Sept. 12.—The latest War Office statement says:

"In the Tyrol there were local patrol engagements. In the Asolone region we repulsed an Italian surprise attack with sanguinary losses. Artillery fighting continues on the Piave. We made a successful attack in Albania on the Tomorie ridge, taking possession of the enemy's positions at a few points."

DRAFT DIRECTOR CONBOY
GETS HIS CARD OF BLUE

Registers at Local Board No. 129
Along With Dudley Field Malone and Rabbi Wise.

A busy looking man entered the headquarters of Local Draft Board No. 129 this morning and said he wanted to register right away.

"Name?" said the registrar without looking up.

"Martin Conboy," the visitor said. "Occupation?"

"Director of the Draft."

He got his blue card, but the chances are that he won't be called to a training camp for some time, for if he doesn't claim a deferred classification his employer will probably do it for him on the ground that he is engaged in an essential industry.

Dudley Field Malone was registered later by the same local board, and then came Rabbi Stephen S. Wise to get a blue card. With these came many distinguished residents of the district, men whose check is good in six or seven figures.

GEN. PERSHING ADDS TWO MEMBERS TO HIS STAFF

Offices of Chief of Infantry and Chief of Cavalry Established by Commander.

AMERICAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Sept. 12 (Associated Press).—The offices of Chief of the Infantry and Chief of Cavalry of the American Expeditionary Force have just been established by Gen. Pershing. Both offices will be members of Gen. Pershing's staff. The nominations for the two new positions have not yet been made.

The duties of the new staff members will be to act as advisers on subjects concerning their respective arms of the service, to inspect organizations, training material and equipment methods and to study phases of their branches affecting general efficiency and make suitable recommendations concerning them. They will also be responsible for the preparation of all details concerning the instruction of training units.

HOBOKEN MAN GASSED BLIND

Son of Former Fire Captain
Wounded at the Marne.

While fighting across the Marne in France, on a mission for which he had volunteered, Private Ivan D. Brockman, son of Herman Brockman, former captain of the Hoboken Fire Department, was severely gassed, his father has been informed. His gas mask slipped off. He lost the use of his eyes, but surgeons believe his sight is not permanently destroyed.
